Cast Chosen For "Beauty and the Beef"

Student Council Plan Sock and Sweater Dance

On March 12, 1954, the Student Council will present its annual Sock and Sweater Dance. The general management is in the capable hands of Co-chairmen Lawrence Gallerani and Thomas O'Keefe.

We should have some original and cute invitations, with Nancy Hallock as chairman of this committee. There will be refreshments galore as Jane Masure heads the refreshment committee. Deciding upon the decorations and taking care of clean-up will be the task of the committee headed by Ronnie LaFleur. Providing the dancers with souveniers is Lucia Alfano, and publicity is again ably headed by Donnie Hastings.

The unanimous decision of the music committee, headed by Chester Nicora, was that music for the dance be supplied by the band that played so well at the recent Valentine Dance —The Mello-Tones.

Tickets will be $1.25 per couple and may be obtained from any Student Council member. Let's have a large turn-out for this dance to show the Student Council that all the students in high school are behind them in their efforts to supply an evening of fun for the entire high school.

Music Notes

Word has just been received that the following students have been accepted to sing in the 1954 All-State Chorus, sponsored by the Massachusetts Music Educators' Association which is to be held this year in Worcester, Mass.

Judith Peterson, Elizabeth Langlois, and Mary Pond are the lucky girls. John Cardone and Carmin Calabrese will help the tenors; Donald Gould and Richard Jabry, baritones; and Elliot Blackburn and Charles Robinson will add to the bass section.

Judy and Elliot were members of the chorus last year. Elizabeth sang with the New England Chorus in 1953. For the others, it will be their first experience in one of the finest choral groups in the East.

Our supervisor, Miss Hayes, is treasurer of the M.M.E.A.

BROWNIES TRIP TERRIERS 54-47

Paced by Dan Molta, high scorer with 25 points, the Brownies finally broke the spell West Side had cast over Agawam for a period of seven years, including 14 games.

With Danny sinking 12 out of 15 shots from the floor, the Brownies were able to upset the Terriers and hand them their first defeat from Agawam since 1947.

Both teams were red-hot all evening and traded baskets at an almost unbelievable pace. The Terriers led at the half, 29-24, and again at the three-quarter mark, 40-38, but Molta, being fed by the rest of the fighting Brownies, kept dunking those long ones that really counted.

West Side, led by Nicora and Eagan, with 18 and 13 points respectively, kept the Terriers' spirits high right up to the last minute of the game.

Although Molta's scoring led the Brownies, due credit must be given to "Andy" Anderson for his successful rebound plays, "Rock" LeClerc for his under-the-basket scoring, Donnie Hastings for playing wonderfully the length of a rough game with a broken hand, and "Lefty" Freniere for his breathless long shots from about the center mark.

Final score: Agawam 54, West Side 47.

BEHIND THE SCENES

On the night of February 16, a determined crew of basketball players visited West Side. Everyone was tense and tight from the time they left Agawam until that final whistle blew. Andy, Danny, Donnie, Rog, and Earl sat in the locker room before game time and I don't think anyone of them uttered a word. They looked as if they really meant business.

Fifteen minutes later it was that same group of fellows who lined up for the tap. The "Big Rock" took the opening tap, drove in, and we got off to a wonderful start. As the game progressed it was "Dangerous Dan" Molta who whistled 25 points through two courts. Donny Hastings, the "Little Jack Rabbit," was tremendous dispite a very bad hand.

When the game was clenched, it was a sight that would bring tears to your eyes. Mr. Kistner, after six years, finally beat the Terriers. Andy was huddled in a corner with beads of sweat pouring off his forehead, but with a mighty contented look on his face. "The Rock" was all in, but mighty happy. Danny and Donnie acted as modest as ever, with not a word to say, but pleased as punch, as was Earl.

It certainly was one to win and everyone is mighty proud of Agawam's "Fighting Five."

Red Cross News

The Junior Red Cross has been very busy lately making a booklet to send to Sweden The booklet contains essays, which are in the form of letters about typical American girls and boys, snapshots of many interesting sights in the United States, and pictures of American stamps and flowers. They're hoping to receive a booklet in exchange from one of the schools in Sweden.

Commercial News

The Stenography II class has added two more girls who can write at 100 W.P.M. They are Barbara Cheney and Adrienne Grasso.

NOTICE

Snapshots of the Class of "54" are desperately needed for the Sachem! If there are any students that have pictures of the senior class in action, please bring them in as soon as possible.

Bring in sport pictures, social pictures or any others that may be used in the year book. We prefer group pictures if possible. You can leave the pictures with Marie Steeves, Carol Flynn, or Judy Slate. Leave your name with your pictures, and they will be returned to you if they are not useable.

Don't forget — as soon as possible!

A very talented cast has been chosen for "Beauty and the Beef," the senior plan destined to be a smash hit.

Barbara Cheney has the part of Ginny, the smartest girl ever to graduate from the "Junior Quiz Program." She has spent the last five of her seventeen years trying to live down her reputation.

George, her father, is played by John Cardone. He is devoted to his family and Ginny is his pride and joy.

Laura, his wife, is very happy with her home and family. She could be a little smarter but she couldn't be any nicer. This part is played by Elizabeth Langlois.

Lester, Ginny's brother, portrayed by Donald Marsian, is fourteen, has no conscience, little humor, and the drive of a steam engine.

Professor Barton, played by Paul Montagna, is a rather gentle old soul with a mild manner and a settled philosophy.

Franny, a seventeen year old girl, is smart but disillusioned as only a principal's daughter can be. Ginny helps her to see patches of blue between the clouds, but the clouds are still there. This part is played by Lucia Alfano.

Elliot Blackburn plays the part of Beef who makes up in persistence what he lacks in brilliance. He is honest, industrious, and an exceptional football player.

Molly Woods, played by Marilyn Wilson, is a woebegone little girl of thirteen. Mr. Woods, a highly excit-

Should I or shouldn't I?—I wonder. It's a beautiful warm spring day. That ole bug "spring fever" is hanging around again, along with that eternal question—"Should I skip school today?" Maybe I could go to the show with the gang or go for a ride in my jalopy or someone else's (hoping that the truant officer won't catch me.) Gee, I could have loads of fun!

Or should I listen to my conscience and to go to school like I know I'm supposed to do. For a few moments the temptation is pretty great. It looks like a lot more fun to be out on the loose rather than sitting in a classroom all day long.

However, that's only the first glance at the situation. Don't be in a rush—think it over a little more carefully. If I do skip, I probably will have a grand time and enjoy myself immensely, but what about tomorrow? Well, I guess I'll just have to keep on with my little scheme. I'll try to ignore my conscience and write my own excuse, signing my mother's name. Perhaps I'll be lucky enough not to get caught, but nevertheless I'll still have all my yesterday's work to make up. I missed the review for the history test and I'll also have to make up that big English exam.

Chances are nine out of ten, however, that I will be caught. If I do I'll really be in "hot water". It isn't going to be so much fun to sit in study hall every day for a week while it's so nice outdoors. Oh yes, and then that zero I'll have to take for my English exam—that won't help my report card any. Aside from my punishment, what will my teachers think of me? What kind of a reputation will I have? Just think, I could have had as much fun on a Saturday or during a vacation without having to pay the consequences.

Remember, whether you continue on to college or whether you go out into the business world, there will always be times when you'd much rather be doing something other than what you have to do. No employer would allow his employees to take a day off from their job whenever they pleased. At the present time school is your job. Form good habits now.

When you are tempted to skip school, stop and think—"Is it really worth it?"

Sophs Plan Jazz Party

Sopho Plan Jazz Party

The Sophomore class is busy planning for their class party. The chairmen were chosen for the various committees at a recent meeting. The general chairman is Joanne Meissner; invitations, Amber Walcott; music, Vern Williams; decorations, Susan LaFrancis; refreshments, Shirley Spinelle, and clean-up, Paul Russell.

The Sophomores, I'm sure, will put over a wonderful party as usual.

The date of the party is March 19. The theme for the dance will be the "Dixieland Jazz Party."

"Best of luck to the Class of "56".

New Student

Theresa Reyonlds arrived at Agawam High on January 4. She lived in Indian Orchard, but she attended Commerce High in Springfield. The first thing that she noticed at Agawam was how friendly our students are.

She is very much interested in art. She plans to join many of our clubs next year.

Theresa has a Japanese pen-pal to whom she enjoys writing.

Amber Wolcott Poster Girl

Amber Wolcott had a very wonderful experience of being chosen poster girl for "1954". Amber went to the New England Regional Convention of the United Cerebral Palsy Association in Hartford, Connecticut. This trip was over the week end of February 14. Amber went on this trip with her mother and father.

They had a very lovely lunch and dinner at the Hotel Bond. Many interesting speeches were given. Amber had the pleasure of meeting His Excellency Governor John D. Lodge and Maria Riva.

"Congratulations, Amber."

William Munsell, representing the Agawam High School Chapter of Future Farmers of America, placed second in the district public speaking contest held at Smith's Agricultural School in Northampton on Wednesday, February 17, 1954, at 1 p. m.

Munsell spoke on the subject "Biological Warfare—Are You Ready for It, Mr. Farmer?"

The winner was from Stockbridge, while our rival town, West Springfield, placed third. Fourth and fifth spots were taken by Hatfield and Northampton respectively.

Bill will be alternate to the state finals at the U. of M. if the Stockbridge boy does not participate.

"Congratulations, Bill."

Freshmen Flashes

At a class meeting held in Room 26, nominations for the students to serve on the various committees for the freshman class party were made. The party is scheduled to take place on April 23.

The chairmen of the various committees are as follows: Patricia Arnold, entertainment; Michael Egan, music; Anna Demichele, refreshments; Sandra Saitto, decorations and invitations; and John Phillips, clean-up.

A Look at Books

This month there are so many new books in the library that I couldn't possibly stop and tell you about each one, so I'm just going to list twenty top ones and let you find out for yourself what they are about.

They are as follows: Dawn's Early Light, Three Harbors, Holy Bible, Complete Shakespeare, Emily Post Etiquette, House of Seven Gables, Hammond's Nature Atlas, Double Feature, County Fair, Teen-age Gridiron Stories, Button & Beaux, Boy's Book of Motor Sports, Day of the False Dragon, Test of Valor, Boarding School Mystery, Baby Sitter's Guide, Land & People of Ireland, Magic in Her Voice, Popular Mechanic-Electric Fix-it Book, and Around the World with the Harlem Globe Trotters.

Let's take advantage of these wonderful books!

I.R.C.

At an I.R.C. meeting Mr. Robert McCreech from Buckingham Junior High School, who takes groups to visit the United Nations, spoke about the United Nations and also gave information regarding trips to it, as the I.R.C. members hope to visit there sometime this year.

Ann Zucco was in charge of their next meeting at which time Josephine Alfano and Muriel Fleming read newspaper articles which had been changed slightly and the club members were to correct them. This was to see how well they had read the papers lately.

Then the club had a contest to see who could guess the most names by looking at just the persons' pictures.

Personality Club

On January 22, Mrs. Ethel Cross showed movies and spoke about Australia to the club.

At a later meeting, Bob Boisseau, a 4-H boy who had been to Turkey on the International Farm Youth Exchange, showed slides and spoke about Turkey.

F.T.A.

The F.T.A. had the honor of serving at the tea for Mr. Reynolds on January 25. They did a wonderful job.

Mr. Holmes spoke to the F.T.A.'s about the Adult Education Program, particularly at Agawam. He told how it started and gave some of its future plans.

At their next meeting Miss Miller told about Teacher's Clubs and organizations.

On April 10, the club plans to attend a teachers' conference in Bridgewater, Conn.

Tri-Hi-Y

A very interesting panel discussion "How to get along with your parents" was staged at a Tri-Hi-Y meeting. Those serving on the panel were Berta Rubino, Pat Bowne, Alice Arnold, Julie Mercier, and Mrs. Holmes. Afterwards refreshments were served.

Miss Ami Garella, who works in a hospital laboratory, told about her profession and gave advice to those interested in this field.

On March 5, 6, and 7 the 14th annual Older Girls' and Tri-Hi-Y Conference of the Y.M.C.A. of Mass. and Rhode Island will be held in Beverly, Massachusetts. The girls who went last year had a perfectly marvelous time and this year's girls hope to have an even better time. Those going this year are Mary Pond, Shirley Mutti, Theresa Morassi, Barbara Cheney, Berta Rubino, Julie Mercier, Theresa Wright, Cynthia Allen, Lynne Higgins, Patricia Bowne and Elizabeth Guidi.

Ski Club

Members of the Ski Club have been active during the past few weeks. They have been skiing at Bousquet and also at Snow Basin. During the vacation they went to ski at Big Bromley, Dutch Hill and Hogback.

Incidentally, we've heard of a few casualties on these recent trips. Dick Prew, sprained ankle; Dick Davenport, broken ski; and someone said that Lois Lindblad delayed the ski tow for 15 minutes one Sunday.

Biology Club

During recent meetings of the Biology Club, members have been privileged to hear lectures given by two outstanding guest speakers. Dr. Richard Rabinowitz, local optometrist, spoke to the club on "The Hygienic Care of the Human Eye," and at another meeting, Mr. Murphy lectured on "The Duties of a Public Health Agent." Members of the club are now busily preparing various science projects to be displayed at a "Science Fair," which they are planning for a future date.

CAST CHOSE

able man, is played by Frank Moruzzi.

Foggy is a boy who thinks he knows all the answers. He's a very smart young man, except in the classroom. Vaughan Kelley plays the part of Foggy.

Miss Bigby, a very excitable woman of thirty-five, undoubtedly feels herself more capable of handling the student body than Professor Barton. Rhoda Dickinson plays the part of Miss Bigby.

Barbara, the school's most glamorous majorette, is played by Carol Pallo.

The cheerleaders, Mitzi, Dot, and Betty, are played by Nancy Hallock, Theresa Morassi, and Frances Radwilowicz respectively.

Steve, Scaffold, and Bubbles, members of the team, are played by James O'Keefe, Raymond Saracino, and Ellsworth Sharpe respectively.

All in all, it looks like a comedy you won't want to miss. Make sure you save the evening of April 30th to see this hilarious play put on by the Class of "54".

Isn't it odd? Little boys play with soldiers and little girls play with dolls, but when they grow up the girls like the soldiers, and the boys like the dolls.

Agawam Tops Easthampton

Feb. 2—The "Battlin' Brownies" journied to Easthampton to deal their hosts a 55-48 defeat. Agawam, being paced by Bob Anderson who dropped in 16 points, and Roger LeClerc, who put in 15, led at the half, 29 to 24. Easthampton shortened the lead to two points but our spirited Brownies got hot again and piled up a lead of 55 to 48 as the game ended.

Agawam Bows to West Side, 48-42

January 22 — A band of upsetminded Terriers of West Side High School invaded our gym to play Agawam. Our Brownies jumped off to an early lead and by half time led 23-17. In the last half the Terriers caught fire and surged ahead to win, going away with a 48-42 victory.

Nicora had 16 for West Side while Molta and Anderson each collected 14 points for Agawam.

Agawam Defeats Ludlow, 69-58

January 29—Ludlow High invaded our gym to meet our revengeful Brownies who were looking forward to paying Ludlow back for an earlier two point defeat. Agawam jumped off to an early lead, leading by 21-8 at the end of the first quarter. From this point on our battling Brownies rolled to an easy victory. The final score was Agawam 69, Ludlow 58.

Hastings, Anderson and Molta led the Brownies with 22, 17 and 14 points respectively. For Ludlow Minney had 16, while the Jorge brothers collected 15 points apiece.

Chicopee Edges Agawam, 46-43

The "Battlin' Brownies" lost a close game to a rapidly improving Chicopee team on the Agawam surface, 46-43. Chicopee led 25-15 at halftime but "Kistner's" boys began to fight back. They pulled to within two points in the fourth period, but time ran out before they could catch up. Tommy Skypeck led the scoring with 19 points and Bob Anderson and Roger LeClerc led Agawam with 16 and 14 points respectively. Agawam missed Dan Molta who was sidelined with a cold.

Agawam Whips Ware, 76-41

February 12 Agawam's Brownies played host to Ware. The Brownies having control of the game from the start led at the end of the first period, 17-11. Agawam, led by "Andy" Anderson and "Rock LeClerc, soon increased the score so that at half time it read, 34-16. In the second half Agawam had little trouble in keeping and increasing the score. Don Hastings threw in 13 points and "Lefty" Frenier, 13. When the final buzzer sounded the score read 76-41 in favor of Agawam.

Brownies Lose Heartbreaker

Feb. 19—Enfield High, sparked by Walt Dineen in the third period, over-powered our Brownies to win the Valley Wheel championship.

The Brownies led at the half by 25-23, but the absence of Jim O'Keefe and Don Hastings was felt in the last half of the game. Lou Merk and Chet Krygowski, starting their first varsity game, played admirably along with regulars Molta, Anderson, LeClerc, and Freniere, but in time the older, more experienced Enfield team took over.

Dineen led Enfield with 25 points, while Molta and Mercadante scored 9 apiece for the Brownies.

During some parts of the game the crowd heckled the players to the point where it was necessary for police aid. Agawam was justified when its rooters kept to a minimum the outbursts from their section and had by far a better sportsmanship-minded crowd.

The Brownies ended the season with an admirable Valley Wheel record of 9-3, placing them as co-owners of second place with Ludlow. Their overall record was 12-7.

Trade Again Defeats Brownies

Feb. 10—Our "Battling Brownies" traveled across the river to meet Trade High in Springfield. Agawam jumped off to an early lead and led at one point of the game, 19-9. The taller and more experienced Trade team rallied and by the end of the half led by 35-30. The Agawam team battled on even terms until the end of the third period. The third period score was 49-47. Trade outscored Agawam 20-6 in the fourth period to win without any trouble. Final score was Agawam 53, Trade 69.

Quiet!

Came the day of their 25th wedding anniversary and the man of the house started out to do his work in the fields as usual. "John," his wife called. "Don't you know what day this is?"

"Yes, indeed I do," said John smoothly.

"Well, how are we going to celebrate it?" persisted his wife.

"Sure and I don't know, Maggie," said John, scratching his head in puzzlement. "How about two minutes of silence?"
